

Karkaev Aleksey

I started painting when I was 6 years old.
And ever since, it was not important for me to just copy;
I needed some challenge of designing, creating something of my own.
The dream of becoming a designer has been a life-long ambition, but I did not have good luck with professional design.
Instead, I create without the limitation of any school;
it is  only my imagination, my talent and art.
When we three unite, the whole world is put aside...
